Attention in the Barn...

For those of you who receive the ProRodeo Sports News (PSN) magazine, the cover may have looked a little familiar. The coliseum made the cover of the magazine and the fairgrounds were also featured on another insert inside the magazine!

Other

The show barn will be hosting a new event this fall, as the Lonestar Elite Goat Show will be moving in! This is a great opportunity for the San Angelo Community, as it will bring in exhibitors from across the state to participate. The Lonestar Elite which was previously held in Snyder, Texas awards over $60,000 in prize money to exhibitors each year. "The San Angelo fairgrounds are a good location for our show and a great facility that will allow our show to continue to expand," said Roy Sanders with Lonestar Elite. "The Lonestar Elite Show is a great deal for kids, projects are expensive so this show gives kids the opportunity to win money and still keep their projects to take to other shows," stated Sanders. For more information on the show, check out their website <http://www.lonestarjackpot.com/index.html>.

Roping Fiesta Committee new inductee to the Texas Rodeo Cowboy Hall of Fame

By: Fred Hernandez, Roping Fiesta Committee Chairman

The Texas Rodeo Cowboy Hall of Fame is a wonderful recognition for the San Angelo Roping Fiesta Committee members. The Roping Fiesta has long been recognized as one of the best, if not the best calf roping and steer roping events anywhere. The committee takes great pride in bringing the world's best ropers to San Angelo to compete in our famous 700 ft area, in front of 5,000 fans. This induction is unique because it is the first non-rodeo event to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. Members of the Roping Fiesta Committee attended the Texas Rodeo Cowboy Hall of Fame induction ceremony in Belton, April 9.

Happy Trails to You!
